For any student attending one of the many competitive schools in Fort Bend ISD or Lamar CISD, it takes a lot of hard work and dedication to graduate at the top of your class. These top Fort Bend grads have surpassed the highest standards, and Sugar Land Magazine is proud to celebrate their accomplishments. We congratulate them and wish them all the best in their promising futures.

Younger students certainly have great role models in the class of 2010, and these graduates have given them an academic example to aspire to. "Don't shoot for your best, shoot beyond it," encourages Chase Romere, valedictorian at Lamar Consolidated High School. "You'll be amazed at what you can accomplish."

Komal Sheth, Austin High School's valedictorian, advises students to never let anything keep you down. "When life throws you obstacles, keep on going and eventually, you will reach your goals," she says.

When it comes to achieving your dreams, Bush High School valedictorian, Sean Kim, encourages students to go for their goals. "Never put yourself in a situation of wondering 'what if,'" he says. "Challenge yourself to your utmost limits, dare to do the unexpected in the face of all possible failure and humiliation, and persevere through the most daunting obstacles. Live your life in such a way that you can look back and have no regrets." Whether you want to be a music producer, nurse, or lawyer, never let your dreams disappear into thin air, says Willowridge High's salutatorian, Kitzel Robles. "Always go for what you want to become in life," she says.

As they fulfill their dreams, these Fort Bend students give the entire community something to be proud of.
